AMERICAN INDIAN AND ALASKA NATIVE ELDERS TRAINING

Introducing Facilitator: Mara Cohen

Ms Cohen is an enrolled Oglala Sioux Tribal Member, raised on Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota. She served 20 years in the U S Air Force and retired as a Colonel in 2001. Ms Cohen is widely recognized and respected for her work in Intergovernmental/Tribal Relations Training and organizational management.

This American Indian and Alaska Native Elders Training Will Address:

- Barriers Faced By American Indian and Alaska Native Elders
- Ways to Increase Your Awareness and Understanding of Traditional Indian Cultures, Values and Beliefs
- Why American Indians and Alaska Natives Are Sometimes Referred to as Native Americans?
- How Racial & Cultural Stereotyping of Indian Elders Impact Delivery of Social Services

Please join us and bring your questions

Wednesday, January 15, 2003 9:30 am to 11:30 am Elliott Bay Room - 15th Floor Alaska Building

Coffee & Bagels will be provided